Russ Claim Girl Spied for CIA

MOSCOW, April 25 — (UPI)

A Soviet newspaper said Thursday an East German girl has been arrested for spying in Moscow on behalf of the United States.

It said the girl, Olga Bauer, confessed to passing information on Soviet anti-aircraft and civil defense to the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency.

The newspaper, Trud, said Miss Bauer had been a medical student for four years and called her an "unwanted guest."

But it did not say when Miss Bauer came to Moscow, when she was caught or where she was being held. Neither was there mention of any trial.
